Rationale for the Market Consultation

The index uses the RBICS sector classification to identify real estate companies. Recently, RBICS introduced a new theme-relevant industry which lead to the reclassification of relevant securities to the new sector. Consequently, in order to maintain full exposure to the real estate market, Solactive must update its methodology to incorporate the new industry "Data Center Equity REITs".

Proposed Change to the Index Guideline

The following Methodology change is proposed in the following point of the Index Guideline:

1. Section: 2.1 Selection of the Index Components

Adding:

"(...)

- Only securities classified as in one of the following RBICs level 6 are eligible:

Industry
Data Center Equity REITs
