

FACTSHEET - AS OF 30-Nov-2023

DER AKTIONÄR Familienunternehmen Index

DESCRIPTION

In Germany alone, there are currently more than 400 listed companies that are family-run. Many of them are world market leaders in their industries. On the stock exchange, a company is considered a family business if the founding family either holds 25 percent of the voting rights and/or a family member sits on the supervisory board or board. This is what the "Family Founding Definition" provides. The new family business index from DER AKTIONÄR relies on the success factor of the founding family and bundles twelve strong family businesses from Europe that have established themselves as top performers on the stock exchange. In addition to well-known German giants such as pharmaceutical manufacturer Merck, car rental company Sixt, IT service provider Bechtle or photovoltaic provider SMA Solar, other European champions are also represented in the index with beverage manufacturer Heineken, clothing company Hennes & Mauritz and consumer goods manufacturer Swatch Group.
